v.

S.R.J. Administrator defendant

James D Huppenthal

SAMUEL L. KAY, CLERK
S. District & Bankruptcy Court
Southern District of West Virginia

5:03-0633

Now comes the plaintiff Sammy Ray Copley and request that James D. Huppenthal, Administrator of Southern Regional Jail, be held accountable for contempt of a court order. The Plaintiff has been sentenced and committed to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States, To be confined in a separate part of a facility from persons awaiting sentencing or appeal. Plaintiff arrived at Southern Regional Jail on 20th of June, 2003 and has been exposed to conditions contrary to laws and rights of Federal inmates. Plaintiff has been housed with now sentenced, sentenced awaiting other charges, awaiting appeal, and now convicted inmates. Plaintiff has asked for nine days for grievance forms, but no officers at this facility care about my rights, and ignores my request. I have been confined in a over crowded area where half the inmates sleep on the floor including the plaintiff. Pursuant to 1845C3142 the Plaintiff prays for relief which the Court deems just and proper.

Plaintiff

Sammy Ray Copley
